Two Wings And A Prayer

By Benjamin M. Whicker

When this tale began, I was not there. So of the full truth, I cannot swear.
But from my start, I've watched it grow, and what I've seen, that I know.

It is a life of love, in matrimony, a faith in spouse, and in testimony.
It was a spark, a flame, a burning desire, that grew from youth into a fire.

A boy of twelve, big enough to dream; a girl of nine would be his queen.
A sneaky lad, with a crooked smile, a wily lass with no nonsense guile.

Hard to wait, but down the road, true friendship grew till as one they did mold.
Not one, nor four, but nine did offspring. I think it an answer to a prayer from a wing.

From a Ford, to a Hog, to a Jumbo Jet, like him - time did fly, but won't catch him yet.
Grow up he will not, but when wiser he will, he loves to laugh and his eyes twinkle still.

Yes, there once was a temper and a crooked belt, that if you mouthed your Mom, would leave such a welt!
Though that has diminished, still to this day, we show respect and watch what we say.

He lives to love, through service and smiles, he'll answer the call, at the end of long miles.
He does all, he loves all, from coast to coast, but after fifty years, still loves her the most.

Mom, in her patience, her love and understanding, will do what she can though her life is demanding.
She waited until her man's dome turned to chrome, to slow the adventure and finally come home!

She's strong and persuasive, don't misunderstand... she's so full of love while in total command.
Just a straight shooting woman, no two ways about it, she loves us a ton, don't ever you doubt it.

She's straight like an arrow, he's bent on the angle, she's serious, he's loony, why don't they tangle?
They do, all in fun, but they just mix too well, it's like juice and rum, inducing a spell.

Left of center and wild and more than half crazy, she endures it so good, is it just cause she's dazey?
Much is inherent, strong will and believing, but mostly, I think, it's just love never leaving.

From all of your children, whether simple, great or grand, we love you, we thank you, together we stand.
In wonder and awe at the life you have made, in desire to follow the tracks that you've laid.

Whatever the cause is for your great success, we watch and we pray that as you, we'll progress.
That this family you started, regardless the reasons, in love we will stay, through eternal seasons.

Thank you so very much for loving each other. We'll love you forever, each sister and brother,

I REMEMBER:

- ♥ Mountain drives in Autumn.
- ♥ Daddy always buying pink peppermint candy, and those orange marshmallow peanut looking candies... wherever we were traveling + had to stop to use some facilities. 😊
- ♥ Banana Buying "everytime we drove through Price, Utah!
- ♥ The occasional Sunday Beef Roast when Daddy was out of town.
- ♥ Sunday evenings. 😊 (Papa, Aunt Judy) games, laughter
- ♥ Daddy + Mommy always having Fun together! Kind-hearted, gentle teasing could always be heard.
- ♥ Disagreements always being voiced with love, laughter and teasing! Never a rude or harsh word did I hear them speak to each other.
- ♥ Microwaved cakes tasted GREAT!
- ♥ Rigorous (so!) Christmas morning REQUIREMENTS!
- ♥ Watching "Unsolved Mysteries" with Mom every week. I was about 10, and that new prime-time hit was "our show".

I love you Mommy + Daddy! Couldn't get better! Thank you for all of your time, love + energy!
Love Forever, RYANNE ♥

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY!
GRANDMA AND GRANDPA

I LOVE YOU JOHNNIE

Dear Mom and Dad,
Few people know how truly challenging, joyful, and fulfilling your marriage has been. I woke up this morning crying for joy at the opportunity to be with you today as you celebrate 50 years together. I adore those two little kids who committed everything to each other, having no idea what that would mean, on December 27, 1951. I love that we grew up together. I love you as you are today, and thank you with all my heart for welcoming us all into your home and doing your best. THIS LIFE IS THE MOST MARVELOUS, PERFECT
PLAN & GIFT. More than anything else, thank you for helping me learn that, because how every experience becomes cause for joy and celebration and gratitude to Heavenly Father.
And it's all BEAUTIFUL...

Your baby girl,
Bea Jo

DEAR MOM-DAD,

I AM TRYING TO BE A GOOD
SON-IN-LAW, BUT I'VE FAILED A FEW TIMES.

A COUPLE OF TIMES WE'VE BORROWED TOOLS AND NOT BROUGHT THEM BACK PROMPTLY

ALSO, WE DID SPILL OIL ON THE CLEAN LAMINATE FLOOR
YOU ARE SO GENEROUS WITH YOUR TOYS... ETC. I WILL BE BETTER.

LOVE,
DAVID

I REMEMBER WHEN WE LIVED AT
YOUR HOUSE IN 1978, EVERY NIGHT
BEFORE READING SCRIPTURES, G-PA
ALWAYS HAD TO GET IN A FUNNY STORY,
JOKE OR COMMENT. I LOOKED FORWARD TO THOSE.

NATHAN CURTIS CLAWARD

When I used to live in g-ma and
g-pa's upper floor,
grandma wanted me
to vacuum the main floor. She said that if I did a really good job (get in the corners and under things and such) she would pay me. So I started vacuuming and when I got to the first corner, I found some money. So I went to ~~my~~ g-ma to give it to her, but she told me I could keep whatever money
I found. ~~She said~~ ~~she~~ She had left money (in change) in every corner and under every pot. That was how she payed me

I'm so grateful to have you both for grandparents. Having a family that is so close and that truly love each other is a great blessing. Love you both so much.

Marianne

I remember having huge family get togethers at Grandma & Grandpa's house & eating popcorn, cheese and water. Those were the days. ♡ Love to

I remember when Ben Richard was about 5 years old we took him fishing south of Craig, CO. He caught some little minnows and was just as pleased as if he had caught a 10 lb. He was always a good kid.

I remember with fondness being your visiting teacher. I always learned more than I was taught. I was so taken by your warmth and kindness to me. I was taken by the painting of your home that hung in your front hall. Mark and I now have a painting of our home hanging in the kitchen. I have watch your family with wonderment and as an example as we parallel in so many ways. Your out stretched arms reach a very long way. Mark and I love you with all of our hearts. The ELGGRENS

Our Experiences come in many directions as we have seen so much happen. We have smiled and laughed and also cried with you as your friends and neighbors.

Serving as bishop was an honor as a gift of your spirit and shared your love for one another and your family. May the next 50 yrs be filled with happiness.

Dear Ben + Rex,
It seems like
we go back forever and I can't begin to express how much having you folks and your wonderful family had meant to us. Always they (our kids) raved about how special being in your home was. Keith wanted to live there.
It's been so great looking in the spirit you bring to all of us. We love you.

Life Long
FRIENDS

One Christmas time
Dennis wanted to get Iris
- in the advanced stages of pregnancy - a new dress for Christmas. Having not a clue how to go about getting the right size, etc. he consulted our good friend Bea. She came down & got a dress (long dresses were in vogue) of Iris', measured it, and made a beautiful Christmas dress that fit perfectly.
What a friend!
We have loved exchanging thoughts on politics, raising nine children, scriptures, auto mechanics, sharing a Dec. 27th wedding anniversary, & much, much more. We love you Ben & Bea! Love, Iris & Dennis

Remembrance by Kathryn Rosier
Robbins

Uncle Ben taught us about having Purple cows (grape juice and ice cream) with popcorn.
-He also took me flying one time
as part of RYANNE'S birthday party.
I've bragged for years that I flew a plane - (He let me hold the controls for a few minutes.)

Aunt Rea - I remember her hearty laugh that just makes ~~me~~ me feel good inside.

I remember playing jump man (the computer game) with her. She was really good - I tried so hard but never got as good as her.

I mostly remember their love and kindness. - I love them both so much.

The ROSIER CLAN

I always enjoyed the family Home Evenings that our families shared together, especially the one where we had a chilly cook out in snow basin. I also cherish the constitution lessons along with the constitution lunches. One last memory I would add is the two times that "uncle" Ben took Kathryn, Rosemarie, and me flying. Ben & Rea, I have truly been blessed through my association with you and your family. I love you both very much.

Stephen B. Rosier

(Memories from Stephanie Rosier Mortensen)

I remember you both always being full of love and kindness, for the Rosier family and giving great hugs, smiles, and warm welcomes for family get-togethers, singing playing games, or just having a good visit.

Aunt Rea and Uncle Ben,

Congrats on the big

50!!! I remember

being young and taking a bath in the sink, administered by aunt Rea!!

Also, having fun at Snow Basin chili cookout and various "popcorn" Sundays!!!

Love You Guys,
Ryan, Jill, Jaquelyn &
ZACHARY

I loved coming to their house on Sundays and sang songs and had popcorn and purple cows.

I also love that they used to give our family a new game every Christmas!

I love you both Uncle Ben and Aunt Rea!

Karen Rosie

Dear friends Ben & Rea.
Congratulations for this Special Day.
We really appreciate to be your friends

Dear Rea & Ben, Dec. 29, 2001

Let's see! What do we remember most about our 35 years of friendship?

Probably our yearly little parties together - and having your parents join in with us. Those were real nice experiences - both at your home and at ours or Aoiers.

We had fun games and lots of goodies to eat, as well as "catching up" on each others children.

Best wishes to you both and many more years of friendship!

Love, Virginia & Bill Wilson
