The day Katie

got her head stuck in the fence and no one could figure out how her head was still on our side of the fence and her body on another. Everyone is trying not to laugh because Katie was distraught & scared.

I do remember this night clearly b/c I was mad and everyone thought it was so funny, so they called me out to see... I was like "You idiots, she put her body through first... and left her head over here!!" And that is the story of how Kate got her head stuck in our fence.

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

COLONEL GLENN R. WHICKER

Colonel Glenn R. Whicker is the Plans, Integration and Transformation Division Chief, Homeland Security Office, Headquarters U.S. Air Force, Washington, D.C. As one of four division chiefs in the newly established office, he oversaw development of the Air Force's homeland security concept of operations.

Colonel Whicker earned his wings at Williams Air Force Base, Arizona. His aviation career includes more than 3,000 flying hours, primarily in reconnaissance and training aircraft such as the U-2, T-38, and C-21. He has been an instructor pilot, participated in the Peacetime Aerial Reconnaissance Program, and flown as an escort pilot of Soviet aircrews. His staff experience includes two tours on the Air Staff in Washington, D.C. and a tour as the Director, Joint Reserve Management Office for United States Strategic Command.

EDUCATION:

- 1979 Bachelor of Arts degree in Spanish, Utah State University
- 1990 Master of Arts degree in International Relations, University of Southern California
- 2005 (est.) Master of Science degree in Education, Old Dominion University, Virginia

Each year the Dale City Volunteer Fire Department chooses a child in the community to do something special for at Christmas time. They usually try and find someone who doesn't get out of the house a lot, but Katie was chosen this year! Santa and his helpers came and brought gifts for Katie AND Wyndsey! It was a surprise to Katie... the firetruck came with sirens on, along with a truck and a van. Katie was looking out the door and thought there was a fire in the neighborhood when Santa & helpers hopped out and came to the door with a huge bag filled with the gifts! Katie got to sit in the firetruck for a minute before they left! What a treat! Katie is one lucky gal!

tara & ali

It must have been a sleepover night, and obviously Cami (R) and Tara (L) hadn't done that in a while & were very accustomed to sprawling out at night. Luckily Jami and I were so thrilled about our new CTRNigs (notice our hands...) that we were content enough! That or some serious sister bonding was goin' on!

Well I realize the 4 of us didn't appear together, but this was all I could find..
2 sets of twins, it seems!

Not very good lighting!
You can hardly see Daddy-o!
I really don't look thrilled to be in this pic... oopsies.

Welcome Lyndsey to the family! Our little Bunnie, she was born on easter.

I remember being a little hesitant about wearing that dress. Should have listened to my conscience. Perhaps Tara should have as well...

1995 (guess)
Notice Father Dear. He hardly changes in these pictures! Compared to the rest of us, I guess.

(P.S. I couldn't find a copy of this pic, so this one is from my wallet... Thus the 3 years of wear (or is it ware)
around the edges!)
